Dedication

This book is dedicated to all the masters who guide our lives.

The Beginning . . .

Phillip, my friend, inner-world companion and Spirit Guide gave me this book to share with others 26 years before its publication. Since 1987, a manuscript copy was moved from bookshelf to bookshelf, from home to home, and from home to office until late summer of 2012. That summer, a storm damaged the roof of my office building, so the book was pulled off the storage shelf where it had been left untouched for 12 years. It came home with me where it was again put aside for another few months until I felt called to pull it off the shelf. The time had come for Phillip's wisdom to be given to others.

This book is an oracle to be used to help you find answers to questions you have about your life and tap into your own wisdom. Many who have used The Master's Book of Answers by Phillip have told me how the book has helped them look at, and think about, their lives. Often I have seen the light-bulb moment recognition ignite as the book's user suddenly gets it when reading—and thinking about—the answer.

Originally The Master's Book of Answers by Phillip was typed on a computer so old that it used a roll of paper instead of sheets, so I had to retype the book into my current computer. While doing so, I tried to change some of the answers, because at first reading, they may have seemed . . . well, not to make any sense. A few times, I actually walked away from the computer because I couldn't come up with a better way of saying what I thought the answer should be. Always, however, when I returned, the understanding of the answer came to me, and I had my own light-bulb moment.

So this is The Master's Book of Answers originally given to me by Phillip in 1987. I trust it will help your life as it has helped me and so many others.

Love and blessings,
Diana

How to Use—
The Master's Book of Answers

This book is not magical . . . although many of you will think it is. It is a mystical book—an oracle—yet it is also a practical book. It is a book of answers—answers you already know, but may not know that you know. It is a book of answers for your questions, whatever those questions are.

These answers will say to you neither yes nor no. Instead, the answers will speak to you—sometimes gently, sometimes boldly—of that which you know, but have forgotten you know because you have hidden away the answers deep within the labyrinths of your mind.

It is within yourself that all answers are. This book is given to you merely as a tool, not as an answer unto itself. The answers will spark you and help you unravel the mystery of yourself and your own mystical and magical power of knowing. The answers will help you open and explore the unfathomable caverns of your soul and to stare deeply into the recesses of who you are. This book will help you become who you wish to be.

The Master's Book of Answers is here to give you back to yourself and give to you that which you seek. As you enter this world of self-discovery, enter with reverence for yourself and gratitude that the answers to all life's questions are within your reach. You are a special being of this universe, and every question you have is worthy of an answer.

Print Book

To use The Master's Book of Answers, allow your mind to relax by taking a few deep breaths while holding the book in your hands. Once relaxed, concentrate on a question. Be specific about your question. Once the question is firmly in your mind, choose left page or right page, and then give thanks for the answer, knowing the answer you seek is being given to you.

Now open the book to any page and read your answer on either the left page or right page. This is the answer you seek. You may have to think about it, however.

Answers

You may not always know that you know. But you do know.
Trust yourself.

Your words continue to live
long after they are spoken, and your deeds continue to be felt long after they are done.

That which you wish for another is that which you give to yourself
—good or bad.

Is it not that your fear is like that of the dragon you saw in the dark folds of the drapes
when you were a child?

The illusion was your reality
until your perception changed from the vision of a child's fear to that which is reality.

When you cause another to think,
you live within their mind.

You can't catch the rain water
if your bucket is upside down.

The richer your life, the greater your legacy to the world.

When your mind is occupied with a positive thought, there is no room for a negative thought.

A good life is a creation of the future, not a reaction to the past.

If you are bound by love,
how can you be free to love?

Obstacles are gifts you give to yourself to make life more challenging.

You may at any time choose to give yourself other gifts.

If you know only your side of the argument, you know very little.

Another can do for you only that which you allow.

You can stay safely in the harbor, but you will not find the adventure in sailing until you become a sailor of the seas.

When your fist is tightly clenched, your mind is tensed.

As you become a teacher of peace, peace becomes yours.

As you become a teacher of happiness, happiness becomes yours.

As you become a teacher of love, love becomes yours.

You have come together with another to better understand yourself.
