THE VISION

REVEALED

BOOK 2

INTRODUCTION

As the writer of The Vision I feel you'll become shockingly surprised by the content message here, I also feel you'll walk proudly away from this unique literary experience with a very widened newfound understanding into the deep unresolved mysteries of our own human existence on planet earth, and exactly why we human's have been chosen by a awesome Super Divine Architect to exist on earth today.

I fully understand the dynamic contents of this Godly inspired book is extremely unusual, it can become not only personally challenging to one's biblical understandings, it can become spiritually conflicting with many churchgoing Christian people according to its Godly inspired nature alone; in that it oddly relates itself quite directly to not only uncover a very long widely overlooked Biblical (end time) prediction, its also been very long overlooked by the entire Christian world, both past and present.

No one has actually taken the time to know of this Biblically predicted Vision before; this unique end time revelation and Biblical understanding is truly a newfound Biblical discovery most all of the churches have long since overlooked and avoided for some two thousand years throughout all of church history.

This book strangely reveals by which means this newly found end time prediction is to come about and unfold all during the last days, as well as by exactly whom this visionary prediction will unfold itself; soon afterwards it shall present its Godly message before the entire lost world of our day and time.

It's my understanding there's never ever been such a book composed and/or written anywhere on planet earth a similar nature to this one. For that reason alone I feel it would be extremely beneficial and exceedingly worthwhile to at least give this special book an even chance to speak for itself, and to unfold its inspired message or its mysterious Godly inspired mind before us today.

Therefore, I feel I should implore those who reads or hears the reading of this book not to personally judge the writer here, or hold the writer a fault for any assumed conflicts contained anywhere within the literary contents of this inspired book.

The one and only true Author of this book is the almighty God, the writer is merely a field worker sowing seeds into the field of the lost world. Any and all personal disagreements and or any and all personal conflicts based upon one's personal preference of interest should be addressed to the Author Himself.

Although this book was authored by God, good old common sense logic would now declare, this book should never ever be judged until one has given it a good and fare reading and chance to reveal its Godly inspired message; one should do so in its most dynamic way.

THE VISION BOOK 2

Listen to its extremely dynamic mystery message, so you can at least spiritually qualify enough to make any kind of personal comment upon its message, or anything concerning its inspired visionary message for two thousand twelve unto the end time world of our day.

Also, please keep in mind, the writer here is merely a working servant, a field hand sowing the seeds of inspired truth in the fields of the world, seeds as directly composed and spoken by God, the Author.

Remember, the writer is not the Author; and therefore, one must not look at the writer to judge as to whether or not the inspired writings here are truly from a Divine source and not from some flesh and blood human being.

I believe you'll soon come to realize, absolutely no human being can possibly make up or contrive such a unique visionary message for two thousand twelve you are about to hear, especially a person such as the writer of this book, as also you'll soon come to see why it would be absolutely impossible for this writer to contrive or compose such a dynamic end time visionary message two thousand twelve.

May God bless each and every one of us at this time, as we go forward here moving deep into the seldom seen and highly uncharted mysteries of a true Godly inspired, end time visionary message for two thousand fifteen...?

Acts chapter 2: verses 14 through 21

But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;

JERRY MCSWAIN

And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

Thank you for choosing to read and/or listen to this Godly inspired book.

(BOOK 2)

CHAPTER ONE

LAST DAY COUNTERFEIT GOSPEL'S

By the way, who and what is this mystery called, Satan...?

“In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.”

Second Corinthians, chapter 4: verse 4

Not long after writing my first book, called The Vision, I felt as though my journey was not exactly over for me, not by a long shot.

With all of the newfound visionary inspired understanding and knowledge I had gained through researching the Vision I witnessed, in late November, nineteen ninety seven. These findings were yet looming all about within my head. It soon became my grueling task to go forward, into the extreme unknowns ahead and attempt to discover that long missing, somewhat semi hidden, but mostly long overlooked mystery answer mankind has longed to discover, Human Purpose.

JERRY MCSWAIN

This unique discovery was very well hidden, but mostly from the mere average minded Christian world. Also, this extreme highly mysterious (yet widely unseen) mystery has sort of always challenged and always strongly intimidated the entire human race.

It has also remained somewhat of a semi hidden (silent kind of unspoken mystery) for many thousands of years throughout human history.

But not long into my new found, sort of spiritualistic journey, I oddly discovered the answer for that very long overlooked (by the church) mystery, the one strictly regarding Satan's very strange evil existence on our planet earth. I thought: why has God allowed Satan to remain on earth for so long now, knowing full well Satan is going to claim millions upon many millions of confused people right unto Satan's very own dreadful demise or his complete and total termination at the end of the world...?

I found that the mystery to Satan's adverse existence, on planet earth, has always been there for mankind to challenge and reveal.

However, for one to unlock and/or for anyone to properly decode the great and fearful mystery of Satan's extreme conflicting existence, I found one must first come to discover why mankind has long since personally chosen to mostly overlook the more often frightening aspects (truth) of Satan's existence, altogether.

Without any question, as much as the Christian world currently knows concerning Satan's evil existence in our world, most churchgoing Christian's strongly believe Satan has an extremely effective way in carrying out his earthly duties, among the entire human race.

Satan also has a very special way of spiritually challenging every man, every woman, and every child existing throughout the entire surface of our home world, past and present; frankly, believe it or not, it doesn't really matter to Satan as to whether or not people are Christian or non Christian, all people have sinned, therefore, all people are sinners, and sinners are all seen in the same way to Satan.

However, the good news today is; we truth seekers and we extreme loyal believers of Christ, and those of us who honestly believe and honestly do our very absolute best to follow the morally glazed footprints of Christ have a very strong advantage over Satan today. We have the direct recorded words of Christ within the Holy Bible to tell us all about Jesus' predicted end time promises.

Some people may be wondering as to what the mystery of Satan has to do with any of the Biblically predicted last day deceptions of the Christian people...?

Just one very small part of the great promise Christ made to all end time believer's may soon become quite clear to us today, especially when we begin to see Jesus Christ knew exactly what all faithful Christian followers would have to (one day) be exposed to, have to experience and also must endure by coming face to face with Satan's long predicted end time adverse Christian deceptive works.

Matthew, chapter 24: verses 4 through 5

Verse 4. And Jesus answered and said unto them,
Take heed that no man deceive you.

Verse 5. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

JERRY MCSWAIN

It becomes clear when we read the Bible that Christ knew some of the faithful followers (during the last days world) would have to deal more directly so with Satan's highly extreme deceptive works, all coming directly from the very center of the entire Christian world, and some may be able to see this deception, as many millions upon millions of Christian's will become exposed to the high tech powered advantages of extremely expensive satellite interventions, during the last days or end times.

Last day Christian's may have to endure the coming days of Satan's end time works, works clearly predicted to unfold prior to the end of our home world. These widespread deceptive works were exclusively predicted just for the end times, very much like the days we are beginning to witness around the world today.

The last day's is often called the days of sorrows, and those days of sorrows are very clearly recorded for all to see, within the gospel book of Mark.

Mark, chapter 13, verse 8

Verse 8. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows.

Without any mistake our world of today is currently being widely exposed to many problems arising between many different nations.

Major countries are now beginning to conflict and disagree with each others diverse ways of managing the problems of the world, as mounting earthquakes are now becoming more and more common all around the world.

Many third world countries are currently undergoing major food problems, while many countless homeless people around the world are actually starving to death, day by day.

It may not appear to be sorrowful days for a huge majority of American people, but for many millions of people all around our home world it's indeed days quite full of human pain and widespread sorrows.

Actually, as a loving courtesy to all of the faithful followers of Christ, living during the predicted last days, or for those who see Christ as a loving redeemer I mean, it's quite clear our Lord created ample forewarnings (previsions) to help free and/or fully liberate all of his very faithful followers from the coming seditions, the mounting insurrections, the overpowering end time treachery, the subtle last day deceit, and also the extreme overpowering Christian deceptions Biblically predicted to unfold against any and all last-day followers of Jesus Christ (Matthew, chapter 24, 3 through 5).

We who struggle daily, we who strive hard year after year, and for we who often thrash all about life attempting to best follow the best moral ethics we can, applying the same kind of moral principles Jesus Christ followed when He was alive living on planet earth, we have all been very clearly cautioned and clearly forewarned by Christ Himself.

In fact we were all told we really need to be vigilant and be on our very best guard against the Biblically prophesied Christian deception unfolding during the predicted last days.

We were told there will be many widespread adverse Christian deceptions during the end days and last times, and that these widespread Christian deceptions were also predicted to come and physically unfold right before the eyes and minds of many millions of last day Christian people.

Here is something for some of us to think about; have we ever wondered from which direction can these predicted last day gospel deceptions will possibly come from, or originate...?

Think about this; will the Biblically predicted last day deceptions (Matthew chapter 24: verses 4 through 5) come from the secular side of town...? Will predicted Christian deceptions come from the governmental side of town...? Will predicted Christian deceptions come from the Christian world or side of town...?

Well, we all know, since the sinners or the secular world does not actually deal in any form of Christian activities, neither do any sinners go out about the world shouting and proclaiming spiritually based gospels.

We also know our governmental side of life has very little time on hand to do much but deal in politics and governmental problems, so spreading the gospel message is not a logical endeavor for the government to undertake.

There is one option left here for us to consider. Since the Christian world does indeed deal in Biblical matters by preaching and proclaiming many diverse Biblical gospels, it would be much more logical for us to believe that any Biblically predicted deceptions to come would have to come from the entire Christian world.

So then, exactly where else could the predicted last day deceptions possibly be coming from, but from perhaps behind the last day Christian based pulpits, and also from most any form of church related teaching...! It might be extremely worth our while to think about this idea more, at least for a short while anyway...!

Last day Christian based deceptions can't possibly come from any other location or from any other starting point, any other place, and/or any other locality but from our very own highly modernized, satellite empowered, very well financially funded, high tech church activities during these last days and end times.

If we, as true loyal faithful followers of Jesus Christ are not better informed about these extreme likelihoods and great potentials and possibilities, concerning Satan's last day deceptive attacks upon the entire Christian church, and consider that deceptions may be coming directly from the seat of Christianity in general.

We now can be completely rest assured that many countless millions upon millions of highly unaware Christian followers or many countless faithful Christian believers will assuredly become directly exposed to the extreme dynamic evil workings of many end time Biblical deceptions.

The understanding above is absolutely not saying the churchgoing unaware Christian (who truly believes in many Godly matters) will lose their souls and thus go into a hellish state or any kind of a hellish torment, no, not in the least. Folks Satan can not possibly draw away any true hearted saved Christian churchgoer into some hellish state of afterlife.

The above is actually saying, if any of these predicted deceived, 21st century, churchgoing Christian believer's are not constantly being alert, and they are not paying special attention unto the Biblically predicted times, as well as they are not constantly being vigilant and extremely cautious, it stands more than a good chance these coming last day deceptions, Christ was referring to, could compel and cause many last day churchgoing Christian's to miss out on the come Taking Away (or the Rapture, so to speak) of Gods' loyal but often unaware Christian people could find themselves heading straight for the Biblically predicted Great Tribulation Period.

Christ clearly alerted and commanded His last day loyal followers to be well informed, concerning the coming Christian deceptions, and to not be deceived. If not, the predictions will be fulfilled and Satan would have diverted many Christian souls to become personally challenged throughout the Great Tribulation Period; we can see this fact as the Bible tells us clearly that many Christians will become extremely misinformed (and quite absolutely deceived), concerning any and all Biblical truths; such as that listed just below.

Matthew, chapter 24: verses 3 through 5

3. "And as he sat upon the Mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, tell us when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world...?"
4. "And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you."
5. "For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many."

To add personal insult unto all end time Christian injury's, quite soon enough, many Christian's will sooner or later come to see the long avoided Biblical truth, perhaps even around the actual true Second Coming of Jesus Christ, at the predicted end of the Great Tribulation Period.

Matthew chapter 24: verses 29 through 30

THE VISION BOOK 2

29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

Many last day churchgoing Christian's will have refused to believe any of the last day warnings of Christ, and millions upon millions of extremely deceived churchgoing Christian people will sooner or later finally discover they've all been tricked and directly deceived by many of the pulpits (actually by Satan's) very intense end time global gambit of Christian deceptions, deceptions likely coming directly from behind many unfashionable and highly underdeveloped Christian pulpits, all during the last days and end times.

Jesus had already predicted many Christian people, all during the last days, will not believe such an evil thing could ever happen unto them, this is mostly because they all have been programmed to believe they are loyally accepted church attendants who will be Raptured, at the coming of Christ, these sadly disillusioned believer's have been fooled from within their own local church congregation.

Jesus had also predicted, many last day Christian people will most assuredly be deceived by many false prophets (preachers and many Biblical teachers) all during those predicted end times

Matthew, chapter 24: verses 11 through 14

11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

JERRY MCSWAIN

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

Now comes the big, big question concerning only those very few Christian's who have been continually vigilant and always on alert for pulpit deceptions, as well as constantly cautious and spiritually obedient unto the spiritual callings to be loyally observant unto Gods' end time warnings. "Don't be deceived...!" Be warned...!

Folks, it is these few most loyal of Christian believers who will likely be the only ones who will be Raptured from off the planet earth, just before the Great Tribulation Period.

Afterwards, their departure from the planet earth will keep them from any further need of spiritual conditioning, it is they who are the one's who will then come face-to-face with the Lord Jesus Christ, who (by the way does not come into direct contact with the surface of the planet earth at that time) but is waiting upon these most loyal and obedient believer's in the airways, above the planet earth.

First Thessalonians chapter 4: verses 15 through 18
15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.
16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

THE VISION BOOK 2

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

Thus, it is they or them who will not have to suffer the Great Tribulation Period or be further subjected to any other worldly sufferings in order for them to learn how to be loyally obedient unto the end time laws of Gods' warnings; these folks will be them who have spiritually recovered and have corrected their wrongful disobedience to the warnings and has also learned to be much more alert to all of the end time warning signs of Jesus Christ.

In fact, I do believe if one man were here with us Christians today, I believe this one special man alone could tell us modern-day loyal truehearted followers of the Christian church the undeniable long semi hidden truth about Satan's extreme subversive undercover work, all during the last days.

This one man would no doubt tell all loyal Christian followers to be much more consciously attentive, mostly by deeply investigating church related Biblical concepts they are hearing from all Christian leaders and also be much more alert toward the basic spiritual objectives and background intentions of any and all last day Christian leaders.

Personally speaking of course, I really believe the late Napoleon Bonaparte (seventeen sixty nine to eighteen twenty one) could actually say it best, and do it much, much better than most anyone behind the pulpits of our day and time. I'm absolutely sure the late Napoleon Bonaparte would say the following:

JERRY MCSWAIN

“Only a very foolish person would step boldly out into any field of battle, against an unknown enemy force.”

Personally speaking of course, I also believe Napoleon Bonaparte would just love to share this kind of great wisdom with the entire world of today, especially since he (himself) fought the Battle of Waterloo, totally against an extreme enemy Napoleon absolutely knew nothing at all about.

Sadly enough, this very same battle soon became Napoleon's biggest undoing or downfall, and he became a perfect example to follow as we research throughout his entire military career, as being the worlds most battle minded leader.

However, Napoleon Bonaparte suddenly came face to face with an extreme enemy force at Waterloo; this was also an enemy force Napoleon was not actually ready or fully prepared to face.

On the eighteenth of June, eighteen fifty one Napoleon Bonaparte attacked Wellington at Waterloo, in what has now evolved (in our day and time) to become one of history's most famous battles. Napoleon Bonaparte lost the Battle at Waterloo, simply because he fought against an absolute unknown enemy force.

Napoleon did not fully research his enemy's force nor did he fully investigate his absolute worst enemy's extreme number (strength) before the battle begun; therefore, Napoleon did not properly asses the full fighting might and force he was about to face.

However, Napoleon died, but not at Waterloo, he lost that historically recorded battle but he actually died at

THE VISION BOOK 2

Longwood, May fifth, eighteen twenty one of a stomach ulcer, one that was probably lethally cancerous by any terms of the word.

Have any of us ever wondered what would result or could happen if any of us faithful Christian's of today suddenly comes face to face with our home worlds absolute most destructive enemy the world has ever known (Satan), without applying the full armor of Christ in one's Christian lifestyle...?

Just the same, most of our modern-day, very hardcore historian's actually believe Napoleon's death (June eighth, eighteen fifty one) to be somewhat inaccurate; there's also a slight rumored theory going around, such as Napoleon died of arsenic poisoning. Whatever the case may or may not be here, Napoleon was buried on the island of St. Helena; he died a completely defeated man, he died completely all alone...!

Actually, here in Napoleon's battle of Waterloo, we can clearly see the most absolute perfected historically recorded example for anyone who must come to face an enemy, in any field of battle.

Think about it, this historically recorded wisdom is coming directly from a dead man, a dead man who once lived many years before most of us were born, and right here is someone who must know much, much better by now how to fight an enemy.

I'm absolutely sure that by now old Napoleon must know exactly how one needs to face one's absolute worst enemy; but, alas, for Napoleon all of the wars are over for him, but lets hope the coming war is not over for some of us last day believers of today.
